

GRADUATE PROGRAM IN HISTORY

Program Director's Message

Greetings, and welcome to a new semester! We had an exciting fall, and we are looking forward to all the great work our department will do this spring. These are being written, our graduate students are presenting their work at conferences, and more.

Thank you to the faculty and student body for all their hard efforts this semester. Wishing you the best for the rest of the Spring term!

- Dr. Jeff Johnson

Recent News

Graduate faculty member Dr. Margaret Manchester, along with Dr. Stephanie Boeninger from the English Department, took a group of undergraduate students abroad for the DWC's Civ London Program.

Keep up with their travels, and check out their awesome pictures on instagram - @civ_london

Covid-19 Update

An Update on Our Program's Response Plan to the Covid-19 Pandemic

Providence College began requiring booster shots at the beginning of this Spring '22 semester in an effort to keep campus open and safe. Masks have been declared optional, though it is still up to the discretion of the professor to require masks in the classroom.

All Covid-19 policies and requirements continue to apply to all Graduate students and Graduate courses.

Upcoming Events

Phi Alpha Theta Induction

This March, the Department of History and Classics will be inducting 23 students, six of whom are graduate students, into the colleges Phi Alpha Theta chapter, Alpha-Epsilon-Xi. Dr. Constance Rousseau, the Faculty Advisor for Phi Alpha Theta, is excited to be able to continue this long-standing tradition even in the face of the on-going pandemic. Established in 1921, this honor society promotes the study of History through the encouragement of research, good teaching, publication, and the exchange of ideas among historians and students of History.

Congratulations to the new members!
